DOE/RL-2009-80, Investigation Derived Waste Purgewater Management  Work Plan, Revision 0.  Originator. Bill Barrett  Phone: 373-3985  Description of Change: Allow discharge of in process groundwater from the 200 West Pump and Treat Facility to the Modular Storage Units that are being operated under authority of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act.  B. Charboneau  and  D. Einan  agree that the proposed change  modifies an approved workplan/document and will be processed in accordance with the Tri-Party Agreement Action Plan, Section 9.0, Documentation and Records, and not Chapter 12.0, Changes to the Agreement.  Text to be added is indicated in double underline:  The following sentence and footnote is added to page 1, Introduction, end of first paragraph and the bottom of page:  Additionally, conditions may exist periodically, such that excess off-specification inprocess water may be generated at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility, which will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units:  1200 West Area groundwater that will be pumped from the ground for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells.  Justification and Impacts of Change: There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility.  The process water is generated which cannot	TRI-PARTY AGREEMENT
Document Number, Title, and Revision: DOE/Ri-2009-80. Investigation Derived Waste Purgewater Management Work Plan, Revision 0. Originator: Bill Barrett Description of Change: Allow discharge of in process groundwater from the 200 West Pump and Treat Facility to the Modular Storage Units that are being operated under authority of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act.  3. Charboneau and D. Einam agree that the proposed change DOE Lead Regulatory Agency modifies an approved workplan/document and will be processed in accordance with the Tri-Party Agreement Action Plan, Section 9.0, Documentation and Records, and not Chapter 12.0, Changes to the Agreement. Text to be added is indicated in double underlines: The following sentence and footnote is added to page 1, Introduction, end of first paragraph and the bottom of page: Additionally, conditions may exist periodically, such that excess off-specification in- process water may be generated at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility, which will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units.  1. 200 West Area groundwater that will be pumped from the ground for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater which cannot be handled through the 200 W Fat Trecycle system. To ensure continued and efficient 200 W Patt Operations this water will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units. The groundwater that will be pumped for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Pacility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground wells prior to sample collection. (3) aquifer testing wells.  Justification and Impacts of Change: There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Pacility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Pump and Treatment Pacility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Pump and Treatmen	-	TPA CHANGE NOTIC	DE FORM
Description of Change: Allow discharge of in process groundwater from the 200 West Pump and Treat Facility to the Modular Storage Units that are being operated under authority of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Diability Act.  B. Charboneau and D. Einan agree that the proposed change Modular Storage of DOE modifies an approved workplan/document and will be processed in accordance with the Tri-Party Agreement Action Plan, Section 9.0, Documentation and Records, and not Chapter 12.0, Changes to the Agreement.  Text to be added is indicated in gouble underline:  The following sentence and footnote is added to page 1, Introduction, end of first paragraph and the bottom of page:  Additionally, conditions may exist periodically, such that excess off-specification in-process water may be generated at the 200 West Fump and Treatment Facility, which will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units.  1 200 West Area groundwater that will be pumped from the ground for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells. (2) purpling existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) amiger testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells.  Justification and impacts of Change: There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility (200 W PRT) such that excess off-specification in-process water is generated which camor be handled through the 200 W PRT specification in-process water is generated which camor be handled through the 200 W PRT periodic groundwater that will be pumped from the ground in the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that will be pumped from the groundwater wills, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) per	Document Number, Title, and DOE/RL-2009-80, Inve
Description of Change: Allow discharge of in process groundwater from the 200 West Pump and Treat Facility to the Modular Storage Units that are being operated under authority of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act.  B. Charboneau and D. Einan agree that the proposed change DOE Lead Regulatory Agency modifies an approved workplan/document and will be processed in accordance with the Tri-Party Agreement Action Plan, Section 9.0, Documentation and Records, and not Chapter 12.0, Changes to the Agreement.  Text to be added is indicated in double underline:  The following sentence and footnote is added to page 1, Introduction, end of first paragraph and the bottom of page:  Additionally, conditions may exist periodically, such that excess off-specification in-process water may be generated at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility, which will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units.  1200 West Area groundwater that will be numbed from the ground for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Pacility, is the same groundwater that is numped from the ground in the 200 West Pump and Treatment Pacility, is the same groundwater that is numped from the ground in the 200 West Pump and Treatment Pacility is the same groundwater wells. (2) nurging existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells.  Justification and Impacts of Change:  There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility (200 W PaT) such that excess off-specification in-process water is generated which cannot be handled through the 200 W PaT recycle system. To ensure continued and efficient 200 W PaT operations this water will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units.  De handled through the 200 W PaT recycle system. To ensure continued and efficient 200 W PaT will have fewer contaminants present due reduction of contaminants of concern in the upstream treatment units (reain beds, fluidized bed reactors) and will not adversely impact	Plant
DOE  Lead Regulatory Agency  modifies an approved workplan/document and will be processed in accordance with the Tri-Party Agreement Action Plan, Section 9.0, Documentation and Records, and not Chapter 12.0, Changes to the Agreement.  Text to be added is indicated in double underline:  The following sentence and footnote is added to page 1, Introduction, end of first paragraph and the bottom of page:  Additionally, conditions may exist periodically, such that excess off-specification in- Process water may be generated at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility, which will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units.  1.200 West Area groundwater that will be pumped from the ground for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Pacility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells. (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells.  Justification and Impacts of Change: There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Pacility (200 W P&T) such that excess off-specification in-process water is generated which cannot be handled through the 200 W P&T recycle system. To ensure continued and efficient 200 W P&T operations this water will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units. The groundwater that will be pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells. This off-specification in-process water from the groundwater that well well wells. This off-specification in-process water from the 200 W P&T will have fewer contaminants present due reduction of contaminants of the 200 W P&T will have fewer contaminants present due reduction of contaminants of the 200 W P&T will have	Description of Change: Allow discharge of i	n process groundwater from th Units that are being operated	d under authority of	Treat Facility to the Comprehensive
The following sentence and footnote is added to page 1, Introduction, end of first paragraph and the bottom of page:  Additionally, conditions may exist periodically, such that excess off-specification inprocess water may be generated at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility, which will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units.  1 200 West Area groundwater that will be pumped from the ground for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells.  Justification and impacts of Change: There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility (200 W PST) such that excess off-specification in-process water is generated which cannot be handled through the 200 W PST recycle system. To ensure continued and efficient 200 W PST operations this water will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units. The groundwater that will be pumped for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Pacility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells. This off-specification in-process water from the 200 W PST will have fewer contaminants present due reduction of contaminants of concern in the upstream treatment units (resin beds, fluidized bed reactors and membrane bed reactors) and will not adversely impact purgewater management at the Modular Storage Units.  Approvals:  Approvals:  Approved [] Disapproved [] Disapproved [] Approved [] Disapprove	DOE Lead Regulatory Agency modifies an approved workplan/document and will be processed in accordance with the Tri-Party Agreement Action Plan,
The following sentence and footnote is added to page 1, Introduction, end of first paragraph and the bottom of page:  Additionally, conditions may exist periodically, such that excess off-specification in-process water may be generated at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility, which will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units.  1200 West Area groundwater that will be pumped from the ground for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aguifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells.  Justification and impacts of Change: There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility (200 W PET) such that excess off-specification in-process water is generated which cannot be handled through the 200 W PET recycle system. To ensure continued and efficient 200 W PET operations this water will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units. The groundwater that will be pumped for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells. This off-specification in-process water from the 200 W PET will have fewer contaminants present due reduction of contaminants of concern in the upstream treatment units (resin beds, fluidized be reactors and membrane bed reactors) and will not adversely impact purgewater management at the Modular Storage Units.  Approvals:  Approvals:  Approved [] Disapproved [] Disapproved [] Approved [] Disapproved
Additionally, conditions may exist periodically, such that excess off-specification in- process water may be generated at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility, which will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units.¹  1200 West Area groundwater that will be pumped from the ground for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells. (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection. (3) aquifer testing. (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells.  Justification and Impacts of Change: There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility (200 W P&T) such that excess off-specification in-process water is generated which cannot be handled through the 200 W P&T recycle system. To ensure continued and efficient 200 W P&T operations this water will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units. The groundwater that will be pumped for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells. This off-specification in-process water from the 200 W P&T will have fewer contaminants present due reduction of contaminants of concern in the upstream treatment units (resin beds, fluidized bed reactors and membrane bed reactors) and will not adversely impact purgewater management at the Modular Storage Units.  Approvals:  Approvals:  Approval [] Disapproved [] Approved [] Disapproved [] Approved [] Disapproved	Text to be added is indicated in double underline:
process water may be generated at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility, which will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units.  1200 West Area groundwater that will be pumped from the ground for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells. (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection. (3) aguifer testing. (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells.  Justification and impacts of Change: There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility (200 W P&T) such that excess off-specification in-process water is generated which cannot be handled through the 200 W P&T recycle system. To ensure continued and efficient 200 W P&T operations this water will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units. The groundwater that will be pumped for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells. This off-specification in-process water from the 200 W P&T will have fewer contaminants present due reduction of contaminants of concern in the upstream treatment units (resin beds, fluidized bed reactors and membrane bed reactors) and will not adversely impact purgewater management at the Modular Storage Units.  Approvals:    Approvals:	The following sentence and footnote is added to page 1, Introduction, end of first paragraph and the bottom of page:
There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility (200 W P&T) such that excess off-specification in-process water is generated which cannot be handled through the 200 W P&T recycle system. To ensure continued and efficient 200 W P&T operations this water will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units. The groundwater that will be pumped for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells. This off-specification in-process water from the 200 W P&T will have fewer contaminants present due reduction of contaminants of concern in the upstream treatment units (resin beds, fluidized bed reactors and membrane bed reactors) and will not adversely impact purgewater management at the Modular Storage Units.  Approvals:    Approved [] Disapproved   Date   D	process water may be generated at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility, which will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units.   1 200 West Area groundwater that will be pumped from the ground for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aguifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and
Approved [] Disapproved  DOE Project Manager  Date  [Approved [] Disapproved  [] Approved [] Disapproved  [] Approved [] Disapproved  [] Approved [] Disapproved	There may be conditions during the operation of the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility (200 W P&T) such that excess off-specification in-process water is generated which cannot be handled through the 200 W P&T recycle system. To ensure continued and efficient 200 W P&T operations this water will need to be managed at the Modular Storage Units. The groundwater that will be pumped for treatment at the 200 West Pump and Treatment Facility is the same groundwater that is pumped from the ground in the 200 West Area for (1) developing newly constructed groundwater wells, (2) purging existing wells prior to sample collection, (3) aquifer testing, (4) periodic cleaning and renovating existing wells, and (5) abandoning existing wells. This off-specification in-process water from the 200 W P&T will have fewer contaminants present due reduction of contaminants of concern in the upstream treatment units (resin beds, fluidized bed reactors and membrane bed reactors) and will not adversely impact purgewater management at the Modular Storage
	DOE Project Manager	la/Clim for BLC	Date ( Date   Date	Approved [] Disapproved
	Ecology Project Manag	ger			